Psalm LXV: Thy Praise Alone. Tune: York

This hymn was sung in 1718 at the first Commencement after the naming of Yale College and has been sung in every century since. The fourth verse was composed by Robert Blocker, dean of the School of Music, for the university tercentennial.

Thy praise alone, O Lord, doth reign
 In Sion thine own hill;
 Their vows to thee they do maintain,
 And evermore fulfill.

For that thou dost their pray'rs still hear
 And dost thereto agree;
 Thy people all both far and near
 With trust shall come to thee.

Of thy great justice hear, O God,
 Our health of thee doth rise;
 The hope of all the earth abroad,
 And the sea-coasts likewise.

We dedicate our lives anew
 That light and truth will shine
 Throughout the world, O God, we pray,
 To all of humankind.

CONFERRAL OF HONORARY DEGREES

Please be seated.

Peter Salovey University President

Scott Allan Strobel University Provost

Since the Commencement of 1702, certain distinguished persons, selected by the Yale Corporation, have received honorary degrees. The provost announces the name of each recipient, an honorary marshal places a hood over the shoulders of the recipient, and the president reads a citation and confers the degree.

HYMN

Please stand as you are comfortable.

Let Light and Truth Suffuse the Mind. Tune: Duke Street

These words were written for Yale Commencement exercises by Thomas H. Troeger, B.A. 1967, professor emeritus at the Yale Divinity School.

Let light and truth suffuse the mind
And spread throughout the shadowed heart
As what we know is redefined
Through science, scholarship, and art.

Our founders knew that faith requires
The discipline of sturdy thought.
They trusted that the spirit's fires
Burn brightest where the truth is sought.

We've learned the wisest prayer they prayed
Was that "more light" would guide their ways;
For we, like them, have been remade
By unexpected, slanted rays.

So let the gift of gathered light
Pervade the ways we learn and know,
Awaking wonder and delight
While knowledge, truth, and wisdom grow.

BENEDICTION

Gregory E. Sterling Dean of the Divinity School

ABOUT THE HONORANDS

The tradition of awarding honorary degrees at Yale began in 1702. Conferred by the university's board of trustees, these degrees recognize pioneering achievement or exemplary contribution to the common good. Recipients, by their example, encourage the graduates to value creativity, curiosity, discipline, integrity, and a passion for public service. To read about the recipients, hover your phone's camera over the code at left.

PROCESSION AND HERALDRY

Music throughout the ceremony is performed by the Yale University Concert Band, conducted by Thomas Christopher Duffy. Singing is led by the Yale Glee Club, directed by Jeffrey Jay Douma. The Yale Memorial Carillon is played by members of the Yale University Guild of Carilloneurs. To learn about schools' and colleges' heraldic banners, Commencement history, and the procession party, hover your phone's camera over the code at left.

2023 DEGREE RECIPIENTS

As each dean presents the candidates, student marshals from that school will come forward to accept symbolic honors on behalf of their fellow graduates. (The academic calendars of Yale Law School and of the Physician Associate Program end later than those of other programs. Thus, the words used in conferring these degrees differ slightly.) To view a listing of all Yale 2023 degree recipients, hover your phone's camera over the code at left.

An accessible PDF of this program, as well as a captioned broadcast of the ceremony, can be found on the Yale 2023 website: yale2023.yale.edu.
